Assignment-01-Array

Q1. Write a program to compute sum and mean of elements of a two dimensional array as entered by the user.

Q2. Write a program to enter numbers in a two dimensional array. Then from this array make two arrays: one that stores all even elements of the two dimensional array, and on that stores all odd elements of the two dimensional array. Display the results in proper format.